LYON IS AFTER COUNTY FATHERS

Says Money Paid for Advertising Tax Lists Must be Paid Back.

A CONFERENCE IS HELD.

Some Say Matter Was Discussed. While Others Declare Good Roads Were Under Consideration.

Unless the county commissioners return to the country treasury $4,445.54, the amount illegally paid to the Inter-Mountain Republican for advertising delinquent tax lists in 1908, County Atty. Job P. Lyon declares that he will bring suit against them. This amount, which Mr. Lyon thinks ought to be returned to the treasury, is the difference between the total amount paid to the Republican under its contract for 1907, when bids were asked, and for 1908, when the paper named its price.
His demand for the return of the oney was made several days ago. As result the county commissioners were a result the county commissioners were in a "star chamber" session yesterday afternoon with United States Dist Atty, Hiram E. Booth, president of the Republican, and Collector of Interna Revenues E. H. Callister, its vice president, in regard to the affair. After they had labored together for some time County Atty. Lyon was called to appear before the commissioners. He left before the meeting closed. Although the commissioners refused o say what the result of the meeting ras, it is believed that Mr. Lyon read hem the statute and left without in-julging in further discussion. He re-used to be quoted jast night but said hat he would do his duty. The commissioners admitted that the reposition made by Mr. Lyon to return the property was discussed.

James E. Clinton, chairman, said that after Mr. Lyon left the meeting the matter was discussed and it was decided to refuse any such demands. John C. Mackay said that the bill wa aid, and that was all there was to it he matter is closed, he said, as far as he commissioners are concerned.

Walter C. Burton declares that the commissioners do not intend to particularly the commissioners. for the advertizing of tax lists.

ABOUT GOOD ROADS. Mr. Booth and Mr. Callister denied after the meeting that they had dis-cussed the demands of the county at-torney or the question of returning any money to the treasury for advertising the tax lists. They said that they had been discussing a little matter concernroads with the commissioners.

by law. The Republican secured the contract in 1907 for a little more than $4,000. The commissioners falled to advertise last year and the Republican printed the lists at their own price. The bill amounted to more than $8,000 and the claim was passed without any oversion. question.

The matter first came to the attention of John Groesbeck, county treasurer, who objected to paying such an amount for the publishing of tax lists. He wrote two letters to the county commissioners about it and then informed the county attorney when the commis-sioners refused to consider his communications.

When Mr. Lyon took a hand in the matter he told them that their action under the statute was illegal. The board asked for time, but a few days ago, Mr. Lyon insisted that the money be returned or he would file suit against them.

Mr. Lyon says that he will defer further action until he receives a formal result of their meeting yesterday. He declares, however, that the action is illegal and that he intends to do his
